

Subject: Don't lose millions in negotiations!

Don't lose millions in negotiations because of glitches in audio while meeting over video with your customers, partners & suppliers!

We know of a customer that lost $ 50 million in a multibillion-dollar negotiations because the far location couldn't hear them in formal negotiations with a Japanese supplier.

It can happen to anyone!

You have been given various excuses for audio glitches such as poor acoustics, microphones on the table or on top of front displays, insufficient microphones & speakers, small Coverage of microphones & speakers, needing to press the mic button while speaking, interference with other systems etc....

Get the world's highest quality & most reliable audio system coupled with a special technology that does not pick up reflected sound from glass & hard surfaces which improves the intelligibility of the audio dramatically.

Now Get....

- Send highly intelligible audio to far locations so that even your softly spoken words can also be heard by them.
- Every spoken word is crystal clear without any interruptions – no more confusion in audio clarity.
- No need to speak in microphone or speaker phone - Get exceptionally good audio pick-up, irrespective of speaker posture and position in the room.
- Sit anywhere and hear distant speakers as if they are sitting beside you.
- Get uniform coverage of the audio in the entire room. High fidelity audio with uniform spread of far-site audio for all the participants and extreme ease of usage.
- Also, get quick automatic tracking of the speaker, that was never possible before.
- Optionally, get Voice lift too so that the speakers speech is amplified locally without impacting the far sites audio quality.

Hearing is believing!

So whether it is a 10 PAX or 100 PAX room , contact Business Octane to get the best audio experience so that you don't lose any meeting because of audio problems.
